Can someone check and send me confirmation that there is currently a footnote in the CFR? Rick seems to remember something different (see below). Thank you!

Is the footnote in the current CFR? Rick seems to think that it is not in there right now.

Hi Marietta,

The biggest issue is my NOR. The batching is unlikely to publish in time. However, I have drafted the individual NOR for publication, I am just unsure who to approach for the next steps and getting it signed and published. If you have any thoughts on this I'm ready to move forward.

With regards to the tolerance, I have reached out to OGC.

EFED is saying the can make the timeline for a mid-January decision. Can we get the tolerance and NOR done in time?
What would it take?

We can make the timeline assuming there are no changes to the technical work. I do think
